

ARE YOU UP FOR THE CHALLENGE?

This is a topic I have written about before, but since April is Distracted Driving Awareness Month and my youngest daughter is on the cusp of getting her driver's license, I've noticed that lately, I have some pretty strong feelings about driving distracted. Your child getting their license is one of the scariest and exciting times as a parent. You're thrilled to see them gain some independence and reach this milestone, but ...

CONTINUE READING

VOLUNTEER TO HELP PETS LIKE XENA!

This April, we're celebrating volunteers! Did you know volunteers in the U.S. contribute $193 billion worth of labor to the organizations they support every year? And that's just with 25% of the American population volunteering! That's some serious impact.

In honor of Volunteer Recognition Day on April 20, we encourage you to ...

CONTINUE READING

PROTECT COLORADO'S BEAUTY

Every April, we're reminded of the impact our actions have on Earth. Earth Day and Arbor Day encourage us to be good stewards of our planet to protect it for future generations. Here in Colorado, we're lucky to have many organizations working toward a goal of conservation on a daily basis ... CONTINUE READING