CONSISTENCY IS KEY

Nineteen years ago, I participated in the Boston Marathon, arguably the world's oldest and most prestigious marathon. I felt honored to participate, but getting to that starting line wasn't easy. Boston isn't your typical marathon where you sign up and start training. The race is so popular that you must post a qualifying time from another marathon. The qualifying times are based on your age and gender. I had to run under ... CONTINUE READING
