YOUR GUIDE TO ROAD CYCLING SAFETY

After a long winter and an unpredictable spring, our Colorado climate is finally providing us with some excellent cycling weather for the summer! As much as I love riding outside, the many perils associated with bicycling should be examined before we strap on that helmet.

Because of this, I created a book titled Your Guide to Road Cycling Safety in Colorado, which discusses ... CONTINUE READING

WERE YOU WEARING YOUR SEAT BELT DURING THE ACCIDENT?

When assisting people with their personal injury claims and other legal matters, we receive many questions regarding different factors, laws, and circumstances. While some questions are about a client's specific circumstance, other questions come from sheer curiosity! Today, Bryan wanted to share some information with you about a question many people wonder: "Could I still make a claim even if I wasn't wearing my seatbelt when I got into a car accident?" ...
