DECEMBER 2025

SAYING FAREWELL TO A LOCAL LEGEND

As part of our ongoing commitment to supporting the amazing local businesses that make our community special, the VanMeveren Law Group team wants to extend our deepest gratitude to El Burrito as they say their final goodbye. Since 1960, El Burrito has been more than a restaurant — it's been a gathering place, a cherished tradition, and a true Fort Collins favorite. Generations have shared meals, celebrated milestones, and made memories within those walls. Their flavors and hospitality helped shape the character of our community for over six decades.

Thank you, El Burrito, for 64 years of warmth, heart, and incredible food. You'll be deeply missed, but your legacy will always remain a beloved part of our local story.

Wishing the entire El Burrito family our very best in whatever comes next.

— VanMeveren Law Group

Our client, a healthy and active college student at Colorado State University, was in his last year of his program and getting ready for his final exams. He was struck head-on by a negligent driver and sustained a traumatic brain injury, as well as injuries to his lower back and hips. After attempting to resolve his claim with the at-fault driver's insurance to no avail, he retained VanMeveren Law Group. VanMeveren Law Group took over handling of the claim, allowing our client to focus on his recovery, his studies and employment following graduation. VanMeveren Law Group successfully negotiated a settlement for more than 5x the insurance company's initial low ball offer, giving our client the means to job search and find his dream employment without the economic burden that was looming over his head from this traumatic crash.

TESTIMONIAL

See what our clients have to say!

"We recently worked with Karl and Amy at VanMeveren Law Group, after my daughter was involved in a serious car accident. From start to finish, they were exceptional. Karl guided us through every step of the legal process with professionalism, compassion, and clear communication. Their dedication resulted in a successful settlement for my daughter, and we couldn't be more grateful for their hard work and genuine care. We highly recommend VanMeveren Law Group to anyone in need of skilled and trustworthy representation. Thank you both!"
